PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This will be my first year at Sweet Briar, a college I have known about all my life as both an excellent educational institution and a very beautiful community that inspires loyalty in its inhabitants. I suspect that you share my anticipation as we begin what is bound to be a year of lasting importance in each of our lives. We ourselves, individually and collectively, hold the power to make our experience at Sweet Briar intellectually rich and emotionally compelling.

Each year, the individuals who constitute the student body from freshmen to seniors, along with each member of the faculty and each staff member, create a community that is little different from the ones that went before and from the community that will be next year's Sweet Briar, because each year the mix of individuals who comprise Sweet Briar is different. The codes of conduct that will guide us, and the governance and social structures that will shape us into our unique Sweet Briar are outlined in this handbook. Of particular importance is the Academic Honor Code, the system that governs the integrity of our intellectual and creative work. Read it carefully.

As I get a chance to meet and talk with each of you, I hope you will take the time to tell me your feelings about our community. Together, we can make it better with every passing month.

Welcome!

Sweet Briar's Mission

Sweet Briar is a four year, independent college whose aim is to prepare women to be active, responsible members of a world community. Its curriculum is organized on the premise that a foundation in the liberal arts and sciences is an essential means to this end. Study of the liberal arts and sciences enhances the development of critical and creative abilities, develops the ability to synthesize disparate information, equips the student for graduate and professional education, and encourages the individual to continue to learn long after leaving Sweet Briar. A broadly based academic program teaches her to view her experience within wider contexts, to appreciate the achievements of the past, to understand the methods and major theories of science, to gain an appreciation of the arts, and to communicate with precision and cogency. At Sweet Briar this study takes place within a residential environment that encourages physical well-being, ethical awareness, sensitivity to others, responsibility for one's actions, personal initiative, and the assumption of leadership.

Sweet Briar continues its commitment as a women's college in order to devote all of its resources to the education of women in the full range of the liberal arts and sciences, including those subjects that have been traditionally considered as male domains. The faculty teach individuals on a human scale. In small classes, students receive the attention that encourages self-confidence and the improvement of skills for life and livelihood. A highly qualified faculty, committed to undergraduate teaching of the highest standards, contributes to fulfilling these goals. The College continues to seek a diverse student body which is drawn from a national and international pool of applicants. As an independent college, Sweet Briar possesses the flexibility to respond to the many challenges that face higher education in a rapidly changing world.

Historical Sketch

Sweet Briar was founded on the first year of this century by Indiana Fletcher Williams in memory of her only daughter, Daisy, who died in 1884 at the age of sixteen. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Elijah Fletcher, who came to Virginia from Ludlow, Vermont, in the early nineteenth century and taught school in Amherst County. Later he moved to Lynchburg where he owned and published a newspaper, became a civic leader, and amassed large holdings of land as well as a considerable fortune.

At the time of Mrs. Williams' death in 1900, her estate consisted of more than eight thousand acres of land, including the Sweet Briar plantation, and half of one million dollars. Under the terms of her will, the Trustees were directed to incorporate an educational foundation in the state of Virginia, to establish it as a perpetual memorial to her daughter, and to turn over to it all property left to them in trust.

It was Mrs. Williams' desire, according to the following excerpt from her will, that, "It shall be the general scope and object of the school to impart to its students such education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall in the judgment of the Directors best fit them to be useful members of society."

The first Board of Directors determined that the College should be free from denominational control and that it should maintain the highest academic standards, uniting classical and modern ideals of education.

Sweet Briar College opened formally in September, 1906, with fifty-one students, including fifteen day students. Its A.B. degree, granted for the first time in 1910, was soon accepted for graduate work in leading universities.

By 1921, Sweet Briar held membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of University Women, and the American Council on Education, and was approved by the Association of American Universities. Sweet Briar is a member of the College Entrance Examination Board, is a contributing member of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens and is affiliated with the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome. Sweet Briar College offers courses leading to teaching certification in the State of Virginia and 29 other states at both the elementary and secondary level. The music department is approved by the National Association of Schools of Music. Its chapter of Phi Beta Kappa is the Theta of Virginia, authorized in 1949. A chapter of Pi Gamma Mu, the international society in social sciences, was established in 1983.

The affairs of the College are managed by a self-perpetuating Board of Directors consisting of no more than 32 members elected annually. The Directors include the President of the College, the President of the Alumnae Association, four alumnae nominated by the Alumnae Association, and three alumnae from successive graduating classes.

Sweet Briar's presidents have been: Dr. Mary Benedict, who held office from the opening in 1906 until 1916; Dr. Emilie Watts McVea, who served from 1916 to 1925; Dr. Meta Glass from 1925 to 1946; Dr. Martha B. Lucas from 1946 to 1950; Dr. Anne Gary Pannell from 1950 to 1971; Dr. Harold B. Whiteman, Jr. from 1971 to 1983; Dr. Nenah E. Fry from 1983 to 1990; Dr. Barbara A. Hill from 1990 to 1996; and Dr. Elizabeth Muhlenfeld, who began her administration as ninth president of the College in 1996.

The Student Petition (October 17, 1906)

On October 17, 1906, the students of Sweet Briar College, believing in the dignity and honor in student government, desired individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic. The students petitioned before the President and the Faculty for legislative and executive control in non-academic matters.

The faculty, on October 20, 1906, endorsed the requests of the student body concerning matters of control in non-academic situations. This endorsement was made with the understanding that the faculty would approve any constitutional changes. While the college grants these privileges to the Student Government Association, the college reserves its right to bring disciplinary action in any circumstance where a student or group of students have violated college policies or regulations.

The Student Government Association, on March 29, 1985, proposed that faculty approval of Student Government Association's constitutional changes be eliminated. On March 29, 1985, the faculty voted in favor of the Student Government Association's motion (see Section VI, B for approval process).

Constitution of the Student Government Association of Sweet Briar College

Introduction

The charter of Sweet Briar College grants to the Board of Directors "full and complete management and control" of the College and its affairs. Subject to delegation of this authority by the Board, responsibility for the governance of the College is shared by the Administration, the Faculty, and the students.

The Administration has the primary responsibility for the physical security, health and welfare of the College; for the maintenance, improvement and preservation of all facilities; for the financial stability of the College and for its external relations with governmental agencies, other institutions, members of the wider Sweet Briar community, and the public at large.
2. The Faculty, through its officers and committees, including students whenever appropriate, and its established procedures has responsibility for all academic programs, including degree requirements, the awarding of academic honors, the grading system, and the course offerings.

b. Residence hall activities (except those matters deemed by the President to affect the health and safety of the community or the property of the College).

4. As the chief executive of the College, the President has the responsibility of implementing all matters properly referred to her by the other decision-making groups of the College. In matters of conflict, the President's judgment shall prevail, subject only to the superior authority of the Board of Directors, to whom appeal is made.

- b. Chair of Social Activities Board Subcommittees and members from each class.

B. Guidelines for Nominations

- 1. To be a candidate for an elected office, a student must submit her name at a time and place designated by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association. Those students who are away in their junior year may either nominate themselves or be nominated by resident students.
- 2. All nominations will be sent to the Dean of Academic Advising and Co-Curricular Life. If the Dean should question the student's eligibility for extracurricular activities, he/she will consult with the Vice-President of the Student Government Association concerning the matter. (i.e. class standing or grade point average)
- 3. Candidates of the different group elections will be asked to participate in an open panel discussion once the candidates' statements have been approved and posted.
- 4. Student Government elections shall be conducted by the Executive Committee at the time it deems best. The Vice-President of the Student Government Association sets up the election schedule with the Executive Committee. Elections should be held before the first of April.
- 5. All clubs and organizations shall have their officers elected by the time the Student Government Association finishes its general elections. A list of these officers is to be turned in to the Vice-President of the Association.

6. Newly-elected officers shall assume their duties in the beginning of April with the understanding that old officers complete already-begun projects and represent the students at the Spring Board of Directors Meeting, though both groups of officers will be present.
7. If a vacancy occurs in any office, an open election will be held to fill her office. If a student government officer runs for a vacated office and loses, she will then return to her original position.
8. The Chair of the Judicial Committee must have previously served as member of the Judicial Committee. The Chair of the Social Violations Hearing Board must have previously served as a member of the Social Violations Hearing Board or as a Resident Assistant. She may not serve concurrently as a Resident Assistant.

C. Guidelines for Elections

1. For each election, there shall be at least one “no vote” on the ballot. Any student running unopposed will have her name placed on the ballot along with a “no vote”. If there is a majority of “no votes” another election will be called by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association after consultation with the Executive Board. For elections involving more than one position to be filled, the number of “no votes” will equal the number of positions to be filled.
2. The winner of an election in which there are three or more candidates running must have at least a ten-percent plurality of votes. In the event of a run-off election, a candidate may win by a plurality of five-percent. A simple majority suffices in a two-way race.
3. Ballots which are cast as “no preference” votes are counted toward the majority vote, whereas a ballot which contains blank or uncompleted sections forfeits its right to be counted in any office.
4. The counting of ballots shall be done by an appointed subcommittee of the Executive Board, chaired by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association.
 - a. Executive Committee members and representatives of organizations on the Committee are expected to do poll duty during elections except when such an officer is a candidate for office.
5. Any student who finds that she will not be on campus during voting hours on election day may obtain an absentee ballot from the Vice-President of the Student Government Association prior to the election.
6. In the event that two run-off elections have been held for an office, the Vice-President of the Association may make a motion to the Executive Committee that the third run-off be won by the highest majority vote.
7. A candidate is allowed by the Vice-President of the Association to have access to the numerical result of her own election. She may only know the number of votes cast for her candidacy, and she may not

SECTION VII—Amendments to By-Laws

By-Laws shall be amended by the same procedure as that used for amendments to the Constitution with the exception that final adoption of an amendment requires a majority vote of the College Council and of the Student Government Association.

HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System, a workable system of mutual trust which has been incorporated into all aspects of life at Sweet Briar, consists of three principles of honor upon which the community operates. These principles are: the validity of one's word, the honesty of one's work, and respect for the property of others. While allowing students a greater degree of individual responsibility, the Student Government Association rules and Honor System serve to establish a cohesive sense of community living. When a student assumes this responsibility, it is believed that she will recognize the rights of others and maintain consideration for these rights. This system operates for the benefit of the whole and the individual only when each individual accepts her responsibility to the whole. IGNORANCE IS NO EXCUSE.

The Honor System is based on the fundamental belief that harmony in community living is best achieved when it has as its basis honor and mutual trust. The Honor System at Sweet Briar College is constructed so as to uphold these three principles which we believe to be the core of individual and community honor:

1. Integrity of one's word.
2. Respect for the property of others.
3. Honesty in academic work (including preparation of classroom work, papers, laboratory work and notebooks, tests and examinations).

Each student is required, under pledge, to adopt these standards and to uphold them during the duration of her career at Sweet Briar.

After passing the Student Government Association test at the beginning of her first year at Sweet Briar, every student is expected to sign the Honor Pledge, without reservation, indicating that she will adhere to the principles of the Association as long as she is a member thereof.

EACH TIME A SWEET BRIAR STUDENT SIGNS HER NAME TO ANYTHING, SHE ACKNOWLEDGES HER PROMISE TO UPHOLD THE HONOR PLEDGE.

I. Sweet Briar Honor Pledge

I PLEDGE THAT I WILL GUARANTEE THE VALIDITY OF MY WORD, MAINTAIN ABSOLUTE HONESTY IN MY WORK, AND RESPECT THE PROPERTY OF OTHERS. REALIZING THAT THESE STANDARDS ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF LIFE AT SWEET BRIAR, I HEREBY ASSUME MY OBLIGATION TO UPHOLD THEM. I WILL REPORT MYSELF AND ASK OTHERS TO REPORT THEMSELVES FOR ANY INFRACTION OF THIS PLEDGE.

In order to avoid external controls as much as possible, we depend upon certain means of self-enforced discipline:

1. The student must report herself for any infraction of the Sweet Briar Honor System. If there is cause to think that specific infractions are occurring, judicial representatives, in accordance with judicial procedures, have the power to ascertain whether or not this is true.
2. The student is first of all responsible for her own behavior. If she has reasonable knowledge of a breach of the pledge, she is honor-bound, by her signature, to ask the offender to report herself. If the offender fails to report herself, it is within another student's power to report to the proper Student Government Association officer. Signing the pledge does not commit a student to report an offender, but it does commit her to ask the offender to report herself.
3. Students are reminded that, once a Judicial case has been decided, there is to be no further discussion by those directly or indirectly involved.

Any infraction of the Sweet Briar Rules and Regulations which involves lying, cheating, or stealing is considered a breach of honor.

An honor regulation is one which the student has pledged herself to uphold. The student is honor-bound to report herself and to ask other students to report themselves for infractions of the honor regulations. Such infractions will be considered honor offences and as such will be punished with severity.

Students should realize that every other student has the same obligations to the community in upholding the Honor System. Personal feelings and/or relationships should have no bearing upon fulfilling this responsibility. In maintaining the spirit of an honorable community and of a just judicial system, students must respect the decisions made by the Judicial Committee, a body elected by the students. Breaking this spirit may serve to alienate the individual or create disturbance or uneasiness among the community.

II. Academic Honesty

THE VALIDITY OF THE SWEET BRIAR DEGREE DEPENDS UPON THE INTEGRITY OF THE WORK WHICH IT REPRESENTS. Therefore, principles of academic honesty are an essential part of the Sweet Briar Honor System. In accordance with these principles the following regulations have been established:

A. Examinations and tests

1. All tests and examinations are given under the Honor System. The student's signature signifies that the information given on a test or paper is her own. It is regarded as a guarantee of honest work. (As a reminder to all students, each is required to sign a printed pledge on every examination that she takes. In addition, on every paper and test, each student is required to write I PLEDGE" in addition to signing her name.)
2. Only those materials needed for the examination may be brought into the examination room. For their own protection students are advised not to bring notebooks into classrooms where tests and examinations are to be held.

B. Papers and Plagiarism

1. The presentation of the words or ideas of another as one's own work is plagiarism. The wording used by others in expressing even commonly known facts is private property, and to include it in a paper as though it were one's own, is dishonest. Ideas and facts not generally known and not commonly accepted still bear the personal impress of the people who formulated or discovered them, and it is unfair for the student to present such facts and theories as though they were her own, even if she changes the phrasing their originator used to express them. The student may use another person's work only if due credit is given.
 - a. Credit is given for the words of another by enclosing them in quotation marks or by indenting and single-spacing them.
 - b. Credit is given for the fact or idea of another, or the paraphrase or summary of another's work, by a footnote specifying the source. Acknowledgement must be made even though the student expresses the ideas and facts in words different from the source.
 - c. A footnote must be used to show exact source. A quoted passage may range from a single word to a phrase, sentence, paragraph, or series of paragraphs.

- d. Every quotation must be exact. If words or phrases within a quotation are omitted for the sake of brevity, three dots (...) should be used to indicate the omitted portion.
- e. If such words as pronouns or proper names in a quotation are not clear, an identifying or explanatory word may be inserted by the student. This editorial material must be enclosed in square ([]) brackets

2. Examples of the dishonest use of material follow:

- a. This is a paragraph from THE RISE OF AMERICAN CIVILIZATION by Charles A. and Mary Beard:

“When the first Continental Congress assembled in Carpenter’s Hall in Philadelphia, it was found that many of the ablest men in America had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some were bold: Gladson of South Carolina was for an immediate attack on General Gage in Boston. Others were cautious: Dickinson of Pennsylvania thought that a respectful petition to the king would restore harmony; Washington, like Cromwell before him, apparently awaited the decree of Providence.”

The following is not an exact copy of the original, but it contains some phraseology which was formulated by the Beards and which therefore belongs to them. To hand in as an original paper one containing this paragraph without giving credit to the Beards would be dishonest:

Among the members of the first Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia in 1774, were some of the most capable men in America. They had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some of the delegates, like Gladson of South Carolina, called for decisive action. Others, like Dickinson of Pennsylvania, were more cautious, believing that a respectful appeal to the king would lead to a solution of their problems. Washington apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

In the following paragraph, none of the wording employed by the Beards remains, but the whole framework of the paragraph, the ideas, and their arrangement, has been retained. The inclusion of this paragraph in a paper as if it were original work would be dishonest:

Many of the wisest men in the colonies were among the delegates of the first Continental Congress. There was a great difference of opinion among these men about what ought to be done concerning the grievances of the colonies. There were those who favored prompt decisive action. Gladson of South Carolina, for instance, advocated attacking the British troops in Boston at once. There were others who believed that a deferential appeal to the king would bring about a redressing of their wrongs. Washington seemed to be content with a policy of watchful waiting for what fate had in store. No wonder that John Adams declared the Congress was part Whig, part Tory, and part mongrel.

The sum of these principles, however, is not that it is impossible to utilize the work of the Beards. The material in this paragraph may be used in several ways. In the first place, it may be quoted entirely or in part, a footnote being used to refer to the source of the quotation. In the second place, all or part of the paragraph may be used as an indirect quotation. In indirect quotation the writer does not reproduce exactly the words of his source but presents the ideas in his own words, at the same time acknowledging this indebtedness. Paragraph 3 might be used for instance, after some such introduction as this: According to Charles A. and Mary R. Beard in the Rise of American Civilization, many of the wisest men in the colonies were...etc." Finally, the facts in the paragraph or some of them might be used without borrowing either the phraseology or the organization employed by the Beards, credit being duly given them in a footnote.

b. The following is quoted in its entirety from Writing Research Papers; A Complete Guide by James Lester:¹
Original Material

Wuthering Heights is the most remarkable novel in English. It is perfect, and perfect in the rarest way: it is the complete bodying forth of an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life. That is to say, the content is strange enough, indeed baffling enough, while the artistic expression of it is flawless.

Student Version A

The most remarkable novel in English is Wuthering Heights. It brings forth an individual apprehension of the nature of man and life; therefore it is perfect in the rarest way. The artistic expression is flawless, but the content is strange, indeed baffling. This piece of writing is plagiarism in its most deplorable form. The student has simply reversed the order of each sentence, retaining the essential phrasing. He provides no documentation whatever, which implies to the reader that these sentences are entirely his original creation.

Student Version B

Wuthering Heights is a great English novel. It is perfect in the rarest way: it provides an individual apprehension of man's nature. The artistic expression is flawless, although the content is strange and baffling.¹

¹James Lester, Writing Research Papers; A Complete Guide (Glenview, Illinois, 1967), p.48-49.

This student's version is also plagiarism, even though she carefully documents the citation. She has obviously copied almost directly from her source, changing only a few words and phrases. Her method is neither summary nor paraphrase. This error may be avoided by direct quotation or, preferably, by scholarly paraphrase that may include some direct quotation of any striking significant or well-worded ideas.

Student Version C

Walter Allen insists that the "artistic expression" of Wuthering Heights is flawless. ¹ Allen admits that the content is strange and even baffling, but her argues that the novel is perfect because it accurately presents "an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life."²

1 Walter Allen, The English Novel (New York, 1954), p.223.

2 Ibid.

This version represents a satisfactory handling of the source material. The authority being cited is identified and acknowledged at the outset, the substance of his comment is well expressed in the student's own language, and a key idea in the original, one strikingly worded, is directly quoted, so as to give full credit is due. The student has been wholly honest to her source, and she has made effective use of the authority for her purposes.

3. The Judicial Committee suggests that any student who remains unclear about the proper procedure for borrowing and accrediting material should seek the advice of a professor or a member of the Judicial Committee.
4. Individual departments will distribute additional written information about potential honor violations.

HONORARY ORGANIZATIONS

A. Phi Beta Kappa

In 1949, the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa granted a chapter, Theta of Virginia, to Sweet Briar College. Election to membership depends not only on excellent academic record but on evidence of broad cultural interest, scholarly achievement, and promise of intellectual growth. The number of seniors elected to Phi Beta Kappa rarely exceeds 10 percent of the class and may never exceed 15 percent. A limited number of juniors may be considered for election.

B. Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is an honor society that acknowledges academic excellence during a student's first year in college. A chapter was established at Sweet Briar in 1991 with the intention to petition for recognition as one of 212 national chapters of Alpha Lambda Delta. To be eligible, a student must have earned a grade point average of 3.5 or higher in either term of her first year. The purpose of Lambda Delta is to promote a continued high standard of learning and to encourage superior academic achievement during a student's first year at Sweet Briar.

C. Tau Phi/Chung Mungs

Tau Phi is an honorary society consisting of juniors and seniors who have contributed to Sweet Briar through scholarship and service. The twenty members are chosen for their interest in academics, character and leadership. The club promotes intellectual growth of the College by assisting the Lectures Committee and organizing projects to further promote the principles of liberal arts education. Tau Phis are not always involved in such intellectual activities. They often enter into friendly rivalry with the Chung Mungs, and manage to get together with this ghostly club for a few events.

The Chung Mungs, an upperclass honorary society, is composed of thirteen outstanding juniors and seniors, known for their friendliness, cheerfulness, enthusiasm and general interest in Sweet Briar. It is characteristic of this group to constantly seek new areas of activity which will benefit the College. In the moments not occupied by such worthwhile pursuits the Chung Mungs must deal with the serious and soberminded Tau Phi's, harassing and ruffling their intellectual demeanor. Whatever these ghostly thirteen do, they continue to remind us of the needs of others and prove that giving need not be a sober affair. A familiar and integral element of Sweet Briar life is this fun-loving group who so happily chant, "Glory, glory, I'm a Chung Mung..."

D. Sweet Tones/Earphones

Sixteen girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes comprise the Sweet Tones, Sweet Briar's small independent singing group which specializes in interesting arrangements of popular music. Tryouts are held each spring and the following year the group entertains for various social events on campus such as the Christmas dinner, Alumnae meetings, Board meetings, and for various organizations in the Lynchburg-Amherst area.

The second newest honorary organization on campus is also the loudest! They are known as the Earphones. The tone-deaf, loud-mouthed song lovers keep the campus singing when they rise to the occasion with a song. They do not try to imitate the Sweet Tones (no one could). They just want the Sweet Tones to remember that not everyone is blessed with a tear-jerking voice.

E. Paint and Patches/ Aints and Asses

Paint and Patches, Sweet Briar's dramatic club and oldest honorary, was organized for the purpose of creating and developing an active interest in all aspects of drama and to promote a deeper knowledge of the technique of dramatic art. P&P also attempts to provide entertainment for the entire community and to be of assistance in any theatrical undertaking on campus. Eligibility for membership in Paint and Patches is determined by interest, achievement, and lots of hard work. The various areas of club activity include, in addition to acting and directing, scenery design, properties, lights, makeup, and costumes, providing many opportunities for membership for those interested in various branches of the theatre.

Aints and Asses, as the name should indicate, is a unique organization on campus. Its members, chosen for their wit and lack of restraint, dress in manner unorthodox and behave in manner even more so. The Aints and Asses were originally formed to parody Paint and Patches productions, but now, being masters of comedy, the Asses perform original skits during the year to entertain students. When spring arrives, one can see them out in full force, blowing their whistles to keep students from trampling the grass.

F. Bum Chums/ Q.V.'s

"Hallelujah, I'm a Bum!" sung gaily, echoes through the halls of Sweet Briar the night of Spring Step Singing as the Bum Chums tap their ten new members. In addition to an interest in furthering good Lynchburg-Amherst area relations with the College, the Bum Chums are chosen for their good spirit, interest, and general participation in the activities of the College. Throughout their junior year the notorious ten" serve as useful members of the community. As a service organization, the Bums have sponsored the Bloodmobile, the Christmas Bazaar, a foster child, and numerous service projects. Not least among their projects is the famed show, the Bum Chum Inn. Also, the Bum Chums make a fun-loving effort to harass their rival group, the secret Q.V.'s.

When chosen to be a Q.V. one is not taking on a new job but continuing her interests and work for her class. The members of this sophomore honorary society are elected by their classmates in the spring of their freshmen year for the spirit and enthusiasm they have displayed. The Q.V.'s goal, that of spirit and unity, is an intangible and challenging one for each new group to work toward. Their purpose is to promote class spirit and their names are kept secret until Spring Step Singing their sophomore year.

G. Taps -n- Toes

A newly elected tap club in the 1986 - 87 school year, its members have to work hard, as it is the only dance club on campus. One does not need to know how to dance in order to be a member. Membership is based on one's interest in dance and dance related activities. Once tapped, the new member is expected to help with any concerts or shows which are performed each year; i.e. costumes, backstage, lights, or ushering. Working on community projects is also a part of Taps -n- Toes. Such projects include, car washes, cookie sales, variety shows, and teaching children at neighboring schools the art of dance

H. Psi Chi

Psi Chi is the National Honor Society in Psychology, founded in 1929 for the purpose of encouraging, stimulating, and maintaining excellence in scholarship and advancing the science of psychology. Membership is open to Sweet Briar students who have registered for major or minor standing in psychology, have completed 8 semester hours in psychology, are ranked in the upper 35% of their class in general scholarship and have earned an average grade of "B" in psychology courses.

I. Sigma Delta Pi

In May 1990, the new Rho Omega chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, the National Collegiate Hispanic Honor Society, was installed at Sweet Briar College. Ten juniors and seniors were inducted as Charter Members of the society. Students are selected for membership in Sigma Delta Pi based on their academic record in general and on their continued interest and involvement in the study of Hispanic literature and culture.

Tour Guides show prospective students and other guests around the campus and assist the Office of Admissions in its recruitment efforts. A chairwoman, who is appointed by the Office of Admissions, coordinates the activities of the guides. First-year students are eligible to be guides after the Fall term. Anyone who is interested in being a Tour Guide should contact the Admissions Office.

Student Hostesses are headed by the Overnight Hostess Chairwoman. Hostesses entertain prospective students who wish to spend a night in the residence halls. Residence Life & Housing

Terms and Conditions of College Residency

Residence area living is an integral part of the college community. It is an opportunity to grow, learn and share; a time to establish meaningful relationships, to learn more about yourself through daily interaction with others, and to accept the responsibilities and privileges of group living in a college environment. Residence area living is more than a room in a building, it's "an education".

The atmosphere within your residence area significantly influences your success and personal satisfaction in college. Each resident contributes to making residence area living a positive experience. A feeling of "community" is achieved through mutual consideration, cooperation, and responsible behavior. Community living places a great deal of responsibility on the individual for self-discipline and an awareness of the rights and needs of those individuals within the community.

The policies and guidelines that have been established in the residence areas are designed to help facilitate a harmonious community conducive to academic and personal growth. They are not intended to restrict the individual, but to insure the rights of all students to pursue their educational objectives in a healthy and safe environment.

Following are general guidelines for Residence Life. Each residence area maintains, to some degree, its own identity and, upon a majority vote by the residents, may establish additional guidelines or set higher standards than those described in this handbook.

RESIDENCE LIFE STAFF

Resident Coordinators and Resident Assistants work with students to develop a sense of community in their residence area, to insure an environment where students may pursue their interests, understanding the importance of mutual respect and consideration. Staff are also instrumental in assisting students in developing positive attitudes and behaviors to deal responsibly with the establishment of a more independent life style.

Resident Coordinators and Resident Assistants maintain a high degree of visibility in the residence areas and do so to provide assistance and guidance. Throughout the academic year, in cooperation with residents, the Residence Life Staff conducts educational programs and social activities designed to meet the needs, interests, and talents of the residents.

Coordinating the residence life staff initiative is the Director of Residence Life & Housing and the Assistant to the Director. Also on staff is the Coordinator of First Year Programs who develops and implements programming for first year resident students; this individual coordinates activities and resources in response to first year students' needs. Resident Coordinators are part time professional staff members who have particular expertise and interest in providing personal counseling, assisting with individual or group problem solving, conflict mediation, and in promoting the development of community. These staff members reside in the residence halls and are on call and available evenings and weekends.

1996-1997 Resident Assistants (RA) & Resident Coordinators (RC):

Carson	Darelle Pfeiffer, Chairwoman; Ann Barrett
Dew	Shannon Bazar, Jessica Grass, Karen Bender
	Sarah Dennis, RC
Grammer	Kristy Winstead, Melinda Brown, Andrea Sharets
	Pat Henley, RC
Manson	Kindle Samuel, Astrid Liverman, Mary Lea Martin

Meta Glass	Megan Butt, Catherine O'Brien, Amy Campbell,

Randolph	Maleka Newsome, Janine Paris-Mesanko, Blake Potter,
	Ticia Harbour
Reid	Mishja Anthony, Catherine Zahrn (fall),
	Heather McLeod (spring), Lillie Vought
	Elizabeth Stassinos, RC

The Resident Assistant position is an excellent leadership opportunity. The role of the Resident Assistant is to be a resource and friend, to make referrals, to confront inappropriate behavior, and to develop community. Students interested in applying for this position should stop by the Office of Residence Life & Housing for additional information. The application process occurs during the early part of the spring term and consists of submitting an application and two recommendations. Each candidate participates in a group process with other candidates and in an individual interview with representatives from the current Resident Assistant staff, Resident Coordinator staff and with the Director. Final selections are made by the selections committee which consists of the Director, the current and future Chairwomen of the Resident Assistant Staff and other selected members of Residence Life Staff.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

The policies and guidelines that have been established in the Residence Areas are designed to promote and maintain a living environment which enhances a student's opportunities to prosper academically. Students are responsible for complying with all College policies and regulations included in this document as well as in the College Catalog, and the Housing Agreement.

The College has the right to revoke residency for health and safety reasons, to remove/dismiss a student whose emotional or physical health or well being is determined to pose a risk to herself, others, or the College, to seek disciplinary action for violations of rules and regulations, and for the nonpayment of bills. In addition, the College will seek financial restitution for damage to or loss of property. The Residence Agreement is binding for one academic year which includes the fall and spring semesters.

RESIDENT STATUS

Students are not permitted to live off campus unless they are enrolled as a Turning Point student or are living at home with a parent or guardian and are enrolled at the College as a day student. Students who turn 24 years of age (prior to the fall enrollment) are considered independent by the Federal Government. For this reason they are permitted to reside off campus once authorized by the Office of Residence Life & Housing. Students who believe there are circumstances which warrant an exception this rule should submit such a request in writing to the Director of Residence Life & Housing.

ENROLLMENT FEE DEPOSIT

All residents must pay their enrollment fee and pre-register for classes for the upcoming Fall semester in order to participate in the Spring Room Lottery or to reserve a space on campus as a new student. Each deposit will be applied as a credit on the student's account.

DAMAGE DEPOSIT

A $75.00 damage deposit is required of all Resident Students. This deposit is maintained during the student's tenure in the residence areas. Any damages to College property that are found during residency or upon termination will be billed to the student. Residents will receive a monthly letter outlining all damages. We ask students to report information leading to the appropriate individual(s) responsible for the damage. We encourage students to take responsibility for the damage in which they involved themselves. The $75 deposit is refunded only when a student's residency is terminated, in her final term, and she has followed the proper check-out procedure and no residency damage (individual or pro-rated community) is to be assessed.

BOARD PLAN

All resident students are required to participate in the College's board plan. Special dietary arrangements, if necessary, can be made with the College's Food Service.

ROOM ASSIGNMENTS

Room assignments are made for the entire academic year. Residence must be for one academic year. Unless, however the student is completing the requirements for graduation at the end of the fall semester, entering the College for the first time at the beginning of the spring semester, spending a semester abroad, or a housing vacancy has occurred which would permit occupancy for a shorter period of time. Returning students select rooms in the spring semester during the room selection process. New students are assigned a residence during the summer, based on roommate compatibility. The Office of Residence Life & Housing reserves the right to change room assignments whenever necessary.

ROOMMATES

Living together successfully requires a willingness to openly communicate and compromise. It is essential that roommates appreciate and respect individual differences and each other's needs and rights. You are encouraged to establish mutually acceptable guidelines for living arrangements, such as use of personal property, study habits, and visitation.

TEMPORARY HOUSING

Resident students placed in a temporary housing assignment will be required to vacate from that assignment and move to a permanent housing assignment when requested to do so by the Office of Residence Life & Housing. Permanent housing assignments will be made as each space becomes available. Students will be placed in their permanent housing assignment based on their date of enrollment fee paid.

REASSIGNMENT/ROOM CHANGES

Students may not exchange rooms without prior permission from the Office of Residence Life & Housing. If roommates find they are having difficulty, the Office of Residence Life & Housing has a specific procedure which involves roommate mediation with a Residence Life Staff person. While students are encouraged to resolve concerns that may develop as they learn to live together, genuine incompatibility between roommates is sometimes inevitable. When this becomes apparent, the Residence Life Staff will assist students in securing a more appropriate living situation. Students may at any time complete a room change form in the Office of Residence Life & Housing. Room changes cannot be guaranteed. All room changes must be coordinated through the Office of Residence Life & Housing. Any student, who makes an unauthorized room change may be subject to the College judicial process and required to return to the originally assigned room and will be assessed a minimum of a $25.00 fine.

The Office of Residence Life & Housing reserves the right to reassign and/or consolidate residents and to fill vacancies as it deems necessary. Students must check into their residence area by the conclusion of the official opening/orientation day of their arrival for the Fall or Spring Semester. Failure to do so may result in the student losing their residence assignment. Loss of an assigned space will mean reassignment by the Office of Residence Life & Housing.

ROOM VACANCIES/ ROOM CONSOLIDATION

When a vacancy occurs in a room designed for multiple occupancy the residents have 48 hours to select a new roommate (contingent upon the time in the semester) or the Office of Residence Life & Housing will assign a new roommate. The Office of Residence Life & Housing reserves the right to consolidate vacancies. Consolidation of rooms requires students who reside in rooms where vacancies exist to move in with one another. Students residing as an individual in a room designed for multiple occupancy beyond the mid-semester point who request staying in that residency may be assessed the single room rate on a pro-rated basis.

CHANGE OF STATUS

Any resident who withdraws or whose course load is reduced to less than 12 credits must notify the Office of Residence Life and plan to check out within 24 hours. Any exceptions must be approved by the Dean of Academic Advising & Co-Curricular Life and/or the Director of Residence Life & Housing.

MOVING OUT OF A RESIDENCE AREA ROOM

Students are required to remove all of their personal belongings from their assigned room once they have terminated residency. This removal must be completed within 24 hours of terminating housing. The College is not responsible for any belongings left behind by a student. The College will enter the room for housekeeping purposes and will remove and discard any personal belongings left behind.

VACATION PROCEDURE

The residence areas close for all vacation periods. No provisions can be made for late departures or early arrivals. Residents are advised to plan travel arrangements accordingly. In addition, students are required to vacate campus immediately following their final exams.

Vacation Periods

Thanksgiving Holiday: Residence Areas close 11/26/96 at 5:30 pm. Re-open 12/1/96 at 1:00 pm.

Semester Break: Residence Areas close 12/21/96 at 5:30 pm. (Students must vacate campus immediately following their last exam.)

J-term: Residence Areas open 1/5/97 at 1:00 pm.

Spring Semester: Residence Areas open for residents returning for spring term on 2/6/97 at 2:30 noon.

Spring Vacation: Residence Areas close 3/21/97 at 2:30 pm. Re-open 3/30/97 at 1:00 pm.

End of Year: Residence Areas close 5/21/97 at 5:30 pm All students must vacate campus immediately following their last exam; seniors are permitted to remain in residence through commencement on 5/25/97.

STORAGE

During the academic year: The following items may be stored: luggage, trunks, appliance and computer boxes. These items must be labeled with storage tags, available from any residence life staff member or from the Office of Residence Life & Housing. No other boxes (empty or full) or personal items may be stored in attic storage during the year. Many students have reported that boxes easily collapse and store behind the bureau or bookcase, under the bed and/or carpet. Residents are responsible for following proper procedures for requesting that articles be removed from storage. A work order request form must be completed at least 24 hours in advance to ensure that you have your luggage prior to packing for a departure. We recommend that one suitcase be kept in your room for last minute travel plans.

Attics: Residence hall attics are used for storage of student or College property. During the school year, trunks and luggage are stored in attics. For safety and security reasons, any student who must go into attic storage areas must be accompanied by a member of housekeeping staff. Otherwise these areas are off-limits.

Summer Storage: As a service, the College offers storage space for certain items over the summer months for students who are scheduled to return the following fall term. Sweet Briar assumes no responsibility for damage or loss of articles left at the College to be stored. Students are strongly advised against leaving articles of value in storage. All storage is at the students' own risk. While the College will take reasonable steps to protect stored property, the College specifically disclaims any liability for theft or damage by fire, water, or other cause. Property without shipping instructions attached, which is left beyond one year in College storage by a student after her final departure from College, either through withdrawal or graduation, will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of by the College.

The student is responsible for packing and transporting (to and from) all items to be kept in summer storage except trunks, and for ensuring that standard size boxes are properly and securely packed. Campus Police coordinates the storage of bicycles. The College does not store rugs but there are local vendors who will accommodate this need. Personal items other than trunks that are left behind in student rooms or hallways will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of by the College; any charges associated with handling/disposing of these items will be assessed to the individual or floor.

Articles must be securely packed. Items such as pillows, bed and table lamps, linens, typewriters, books and other loose articles/accessories must be packed in boxes, tied securely, and tagged with name and next year's room assignment. Each box/article for storage should have a storage tag. Students are responsible for retaining a copy of each storage tag as a receipt and for identification when claiming items in the fall. Chair/sofa cushions must be firmly tied/taped to the main portion of the frame. Since the College has no moth-proof store rooms, students are advised to use an alternate location for storage of blankets and clothes. Laundry/dry-cleaning facilities are located in the surrounding community for cleaning and storage.

All items placed in storage must remain in storage until the College re-opens for fall semester; access cannot be gained over the summer, unless in case of emergency or if the student withdrawals from the College. Items which are stored must be claimed within the first week of the fall semester (unless the student is away for the term). Otherwise the items may be considered abandoned and discarded.

Trunks: Trunks may be stored in College attics and storage areas. A trunk, by SBC definition, must have handles and must be able to be secured with a lock. At the end of the year, if you want a trunk stored, it will be transported to storage for you by Physical Plant staff. Trunks and appliances/computer boxes that are intended for storage by the College must be unpacked and tagged for storage within five days after opening in September.

ROOM RESPONSIBILITY

Each resident must complete and sign the required room condition report (RCR) and housing agreement within 24 hours of occupying an assigned space. At the expiration of occupancy, these forms, when counter-signed by Residence Life Staff will be a basis for assessment of any damages or losses or violations attributable to the resident. The Residence Life Staff review of the condition of the room will be final and appropriate billing/ action will follow. Failure to complete this process will result in the students assuming full responsibility for damages/violations, and she may be assessed a fine.

At time of check-out, each resident is responsible for insuring the completion of the room condition report (RCR) and obtaining the signature of the residence life staff member. It is expected each room will be in reasonably good condition upon check-out.

COLLEGE ACCESS TO STUDENT ROOMS

The College recognizes residents' rights to privacy however maintains the right for its personnel to enter residents' premises for routine and immediate maintenance, in an emergency involving danger to life or property, for the purpose of health and safety inspections, general cleanliness, or when a condition is present that is prohibited by the Housing Agreement or College regulations, or when it is believed that a resident is using assigned space in a manner contrary to the provisions of the College policy. Official law enforcement agencies must have proper search warrants to enter any student's residential space in any non-emergency situation.

KEYS

Each student is issued a key at check-in which will admit her into her assigned room and any residential building while the college is in session. The one-time cost for issuing this key is incorporated as part of the check-in fees. These keys are designed to fit designated "Key Door" entrances of each residence hall as well as a number of academic buildings. Typically, these entrances are front or main entrance door. Designated "Key Doors" include:

Residents are required to carry their room and building key with them at all times as entrances to all residence areas are locked 24 hours a day. Campus phones are installed outside of each residence hall. Guests seeking access to a residence hall to visit a student should call the student on these phones. Students should not permit guests access to the residence halls if the guest is unescorted.

Each resident is issued at check-in a key to her room and the front door of her assigned hall and is responsible for these keys. Keys are also available for certain dressers and closet doors in Meta Glass. All keys issued by the College are the property of the College and may not be duplicated. The cost for the issuance of keys is incorporated into the check-in fees. The deposit is refunded when each key is returned. If room keys are lost or stolen, or failure to return keys could result in an automatic lock change with the cost assessed to the student. Loss of outside door key, or mailbox key will result in a replacement cost assessed to the student. If keys are lost or stolen report to the Office of Residence Life & Housing to complete the appropriate paperwork to get new keys.

Residents who do not return keys upon departure from the College have two weeks to return the keys. If at the end of two weeks the keys are not returned the deposit will be forfeited and the resident will be assessed the key replacement fee as well as the fee for changing the lock.

When a student is making a room change (moving from one campus room assignment to another), she must return the room key from the previous assignment and secure a room key for the new assignment. This transaction takes place at the Office of Residence Life & Housing and should be completed within 24 hours of being approved to make a room change. As above, if the key for the previous assignment is not returned or if its return occurs beyond the 24-hour time period, the student is subject to losing the deposit and will be assessed the key replacement fee as well as the fee for changing the lock.

Each student is advised to lock her room and carry the room and front door key with her at all times. Unauthorized possession, duplication or use of keys to any College premises; tampering with locks; lending room and/or building keys to another person; or unauthorized entry to or use of College premises, is not permitted and will result in a disciplinary review. Any student who is locked out of her assigned room may follow these procedures to gain entry:

1. Locate the roommate and have her unlock the door.
2. If unable to locate the roommate, contact Campus Police and request an officer to provide access to the room. Every student must present ID as proof she is a resident of the room to which she requests access. No student will be given access to a room which is not her own.

The following measures regarding use of keys should be adhered to for the safety of all residents:

- The best security a student has is a locked room. Keep room door and windows locked.
- Each resident is responsible for the keys to her room and hall. All keys issued by the College are the property of the College and may not be duplicated.
- No resident student is permitted to lend her key(s) to another person.
- Residents should carry room and building keys with them at all times. All entrances to residence areas are locked 24 hours a day.
- Do not attach personal identification to keys.
- For the safety of all residents, unauthorized persons should not be allowed entrance into any residence area. Individual rooms should be kept locked and exterior doors cannot be propped. Unauthorized entry to or use of College premises will result in disciplinary action.

CARE OF ROOM

Residents are expected to keep their room and its furnishings clean and orderly. Each resident is responsible for damage to or loss of furniture, fixtures, equipment and effects, provided to her by the College. In the event that two or more persons occupy the same room and it cannot be ascertained who is responsible for the loss, damage or violation, the assessment and/or disciplinary consequence shall be shared equally among those assigned to the space.

Each resident room is furnished with beds and bureaus. Bed linens and blankets are not provided, however the student may elect to subscribe to a laundry rental service for these items. Each student is required to bring and use a fluid proof mattress pad. Due to storage limitations, beds and bureaus may not be removed from rooms nor may furnishings from common areas (lounges) be removed; violation will result in a $25 fine. Charges for moving furniture back to their proper location or for the replacement costs of furnishings will be assessed against the responsible resident(s). Requests for additional furniture or for removal of certain furniture (bookcase, desk, chair) will be considered only after hallways and storage areas have been cleared from opening week. Such requests should be submitted in writing to the housekeeping staff. Mirrors must remain attached to dressers. If removed, the responsible resident(s) will be assessed the charge for re-hanging the mirror.

Residents are responsible for personal furnishing(s) and must plan to remove them accordingly at the conclusion of the academic year or within 24 hours of when residency is terminated. Failure to remove this personal furniture will result in a $50 fine per item.

Residents responsible for damage or pranks to student room doors and/or locking mechanisms will face disciplinary action.

In general, damages other than normal wear and tear will be assessed to the resident(s). As a community, residents are responsible for the condition of the public common areas. Damage which cannot be assessed to the appropriate individual(s) will be pro-rated amongst the hall or floor.

HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELL-BEING

Health and Safety regulations are maintained by the College for the protection of the entire community. The well-being of the resident student cannot be ensured solely by any set of regulations as it also requires the student's acceptance of mutual accountability and respect for fellow students.

All residents are expected to respect each other's individual needs. Residents are accountable for any disturbing activity that can be heard beyond their own room and must adjust activities to within that range if asked. Roommates are mutually accountable for adherence to all College policies.

No person shall create, either intentionally or recklessly, a condition which endangers or threatens the safety or well-being of other persons or damages property; nor shall any person willingly create a health hazard or nuisance in any residence area. Failure to comply with these Terms and Conditions of the College Residency will result in disciplinary action which may include reassignment or revocation of residency.

exceed 4.5 cubic feet, weigh more than 80 pounds, or exceed 240 watts of electricity in normal operation. all appliances, including refrigerators, must bear the seal of Underwriter's Laboratories, Inc. (U.L. Listed). Rental refrigerators are available through the Office of Residence Life & Housing for a fee.

Food not stored in common kitchen refrigerators or personal refrigerators should be kept in tin boxes, screw top jars or sealed plastic containers. Bugs and pests are attracted to any food products, including crumbs.

RUGS

The majority of residence hall rooms have either wooden or tiled floor surfaces. Area rugs may be used in student rooms. The student must provide the rug and be responsible for installing, cleaning and removing the rug(s). The College does not provide storage for rugs over the summer months. Off-campus vendors are available for storage and/or cleaning of rugs.

This requirement applies to public areas as well. The College has experienced damage and deterioration to property by student's use of such adherents. Students should check with Resident Assistants for recommended adhesive products. Most residence halls have molding strips furnished for students to hang or suspend lightweight accessories, pictures, and posters. Molding hooks are available in student rooms and may be purchased at the Bookstore or local hardware stores. Some rooms are furnished with towel racks installed by the College; if a towel rack is not installed in your room, you may request one be installed by Physical Plant Staff. Each student will be responsible for damages resulting from installation of personal hooks and racks.

Each room has either a window shade or mini-blind on each window. Students are responsible for providing their own rods (spring-loaded) and window covering, if desired.

FIRE SAFETY

All residents must evacuate their building when a fire alarm sounds. Failure to evacuate, causing false alarms, interference with the proper functioning of the fire alarm system and tampering with or removing fire extinguishers are serious offenses. Because such violations can be life-threatening, individuals involved are subject to College disciplinary action including possible suspension, a significant fine assessment and possible criminal action. When responsible parties cannot be determined, residents of the residence area in which the malicious alarm or tampering took place may be subject to a collective fine.

To ensure unimpeded exit from the residence areas, all fire escapes, stairwells, hallways and ladders must be kept clear at all times. Fire escapes are only to be used during actual fires, or fire drills. Fire extinguishers are provided, especially in or near kitchen areas. Each student is encouraged to familiarize herself with how these are used. Students must not ever misuse fire extinguishers.

FIRE DRILLS

The College will conduct periodic fire drills throughout the academic year. Students should be familiar with the building exits to be used in the event a fire alarm is sounded. All residents, and all guests, are expected to evacuate the residence area when an alarm is sounded, and remain outside the residence area until it is declared safe to re-enter by the appropriate College official. Resident Assistants and student fire marshals assist with fire drills and evacuation.

HEALTH AND SAFETY INSPECTIONS

The Residence Life Staff and/or Housekeeping will inspect each student room at least once per semester to insure the room is in proper condition, damage free, and in agreement with all health and safety regulations as outlined in the Terms and Conditions of College Residency. In addition to a plain view search of the room, Residence Life Staff will view the inside of a resident's refrigerator for health reasons. If items which are prohibited are found in the room [including but not limited to: toaster oven, candles, alcohol], they will be confiscated by the Residence Life Staff. Residents will be notified 24 hours in advance of the inspections and do not need to be present when the room is checked.

HOUSEKEEPING/MAINTENANCE

Members of the housekeeping staff are professionals who work in cooperation with the residence life staff and residents to ensure that the residence halls are clean and in good repairs. These staff members are not available to provide services for individual students. In the spirit of community living, residents are expected to respect housekeeping personnel and assist staff in maintaining a high quality of cleanliness. Male housekeepers will be scheduled to work in residence areas after 7:00 am except in Grammer, Reid and on the third floor of Randolph; workers will enter after 9:00 am in those areas.

their actions and make sure these actions do not impose upon other community members. The College has the authority and responsibility to establish rules and standards which may require academic, moral, and ethical behavior that is considered above the standards of society at large. The principal responsibility for proper conduct rests with each student, and as much as possible, she is encouraged to resolve conflicts of individual rights and responsibilities him/herself. The College will become involved, however, when a student cannot resolve a conflict him/herself; when local, state or federal laws have been broken; when there could be or is a potential for personal harm or property damage; or when college regulations have been violated.

Sweet Briar requires students to obey local, state and federal laws. Also the College has regulations which it expects students to follow both on-campus and at college-sponsored events. The College does reserve the right to take action against students whose behavior either on or off-campus blemishes the College's general image or reputation. Students whose off-campus activities have a direct bearing on the College or members of the Sweet Briar community could be subject to disciplinary action. Also, if a student is involved in an illegal act off campus, the College does reserve the right to initiate disciplinary action.

CONFLICT MEDIATION

In order to promote understanding and the resolution of disputes without disciplinary implications, the Office of Residence Life & Housing shall implement and maintain the Conflict Mediation Program. For more information on conflict mediation, see your Resident Coordinator or stop by the Office of Residence Life & Housing.

ALCOHOL POLICY

The College's statement on the use and possession of alcoholic beverages at Sweet Briar College has been developed to reflect the values of the College and to be in compliance with the Alcohol Beverage Control Laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Students are responsible for educating themselves about regulations and abiding by them. Students are considered adults, are expected to obey the law, and are held accountable for their own behavior and safety. As noted in the College's statement, students of legal drinking age may possess and consume alcoholic beverages in her residence hall room. Common containers (i.e. beer balls, kegs) are not permitted in residence hall rooms. Students are expected to follow the proper procedures for securing appropriate location and obtaining proper permits for events where alcohol will be served. Per Commonwealth law, alcohol is not to be consumed in public areas, including residence hall lounges, hallways, stairwells, bathrooms, etc.

Sweet Briar College is committed to maintaining a healthy living and learning environment that encourages the lawful and responsible use of alcohol and discourages alcohol abuse. The College's Alcohol Policy is based upon the following objectives and premises:

- The decision to drink is an individual one that should be made responsibly, and in accordance with College, local, state, and federal regulations.
- Each individual who decides to use alcohol should do so in moderation and is accountable for her conduct. Any student who consumes alcohol accepts responsibility for her consequent behavior and may be disciplined in an appropriate fashion. In other words, being intoxicated will not be accepted as an excuse for erratic, irresponsible, and/or disruptive behavior either to one's person, or any other person(s), or to any property.
- No individual should be coerced or encouraged against her wishes to use alcohol. Non-alcoholic beverages must be available at all events where alcohol is being served or offered.
- The College is committed to providing on-going education and assistance to students regarding the use and abuse of alcohol.
- Violations of local, state, or federal laws also constitute violation of College regulations. Individuals who violate these regulations could be subject to College disciplinary action, in addition to legal consequences.

The laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia apply in all cases to the use and possession of alcohol on Sweet Briar campus. The regulations of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission of Virginia require:

- That you do not serve alcohol to any person whom you know or have reason to believe is under 21 years of age and that you do not allow such a person to consume any alcoholic beverage at your event.
- That you do not serve any alcoholic beverage to any person whom you know or have reason to believe is intoxicated, that you do not allow the consumption of any alcoholic beverage by such a person at your event, and that you do not allow such a person to remain in attendance at your event. As an individual host or organization host, you can be held liable for alcohol-related accidents and/or injuries.
- That those who serve alcohol at your event must be 21 years of age or older.
- Virginia law does impose criminal liability for the sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages to any person who is underage or intoxicated. Violators may be subject to arrest, legal prosecution, and/or College initiated sanctions.
- Publicity for an event may not include the availability of alcoholic beverages.

It is the responsibility of each member of the Sweet Briar College community and sponsors of any College or private event to know and comply with all pertinent State laws and College regulations; to assume responsibility and potential liability in all matters of compliance with Federal, State, County, and College regulations regarding the consumption of alcoholic beverages; and further, to help prevent any abuse or excesses stemming from the use of alcoholic beverages. In particular, students are reminded of their general responsibility for the safety and welfare of one another, as well as their specific responsibility to the College community for the highest standards of conduct and behavior from themselves and their guests.

General Regulations and Guidelines

- Alcohol may not be used as a focus of membership or recruitment functions (e.g., clubs or special interest groups). In addition to internal disciplinary measures, the College will report to local law enforcement officials any conduct which may be a violation of Virginia's anti-hazing statements or alcoholic beverage control statute.
- At any event at which alcoholic beverages are served, food and non-alcoholic beverages must also be made available and readily accessible to guests for the duration of the event at the same vicinity as the alcoholic beverages and featured as prominently as the alcoholic beverages.
- Alcohol may not be used as a prize for any contest, nor may there be games which emphasize drinking alcohol, i.e. drinking contests.
- The possession or use of beer kegs is not permitted in the residence halls. This includes cardboard kegs and beer balls.
- Except for College-sponsored events and College-approved private parties, the consumption of any alcoholic beverage is not permitted in outdoor or other areas open to the "public view" on the Campus. This includes walking on campus or in public locations with an open container of alcohol (can, bottle, cup, etc.).
- The consumption of alcoholic beverages is not permitted in athletic facilities or classroom buildings unless a license has been secured for an event in one of these facilities.

Individual Consumption and Responsibility: Students of legal drinking age may possess and consume alcoholic beverages on campus in a responsible manner in the following areas:

- Residence Hall student rooms
- At registered private events
- In the Bistro
- At College events where alcohol is served or made available

An Open Events/College-Controlled Public Spaces is defined as events that are open to SBC students, their guests, and students from other colleges in areas on campus for which the College has obtained (or can obtain) ABC licensing for the sale or service of alcoholic beverages. Areas included are The Wailes Student Center, the Bistro, Prothro Commons, outdoor Dells, the Boathouse, and other areas as approved by the Coordinator of Co-Curricular Life. Private Events are events at the Boathouse, Wailes Student Center, E.B. Room, or other College locations that have been scheduled by the Director of College Events in Public Relations.

- A “green sheet” for open events must be obtained from the Director of College Events in Public Relations 14 working days prior to the scheduled event.
- If alcohol is to be served or made available, it must be served and consumed in a designated area. If the event is located at Prothro, the Wailes Student Center, the dell, the Bistro, the Boathouse or the E.B. The following is a list of residence hall public areas which can be utilized by SBC students 24 hours per day/7 days per week for impromptu gatherings without alcohol. These areas may also be utilized by students and their male guests during visitation hours. Any approved student organization, college office or department, or any individuals or groups of students, staff, or faculty may sponsor private gatherings/social events in college-controlled public spaces (i.e. Boathouse, Wailes Student Center, or the E.B. Room). All private gatherings/social events must be scheduled through the Director of College Events in Public Relations one week prior to the scheduled event. Alcohol consumption in designated areas should not occur unless a Private Event Reservation Agreement Form has been filed. The size, nature, and location of the event will determine if a staff member (i.e. Co-Curricular Life or Campus Police) should be present. All events will be "spot checked" by professional staff. The consumption of any alcoholic beverage is not permitted in residence hall common areas, i.e. corridors, stairwells, and lounges. These regulations are subject to an on-going review.

DRUG POLICY

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, (PL 101-226) require applicants for federally funded grants and contracts or student loans to implement a “program to prevent the use of illicit drugs and abuse of alcohol by students and employees.” Sweet Briar College fully intends to be in compliance with this law. Therefore, this notice sets forth the College policy regarding student drug and alcohol use and the unlawful possession of controlled substances. College policy is as follows:

- Students are expected and required to reside in our community at all times in appropriate mental and physical condition for pursuing a course of study. Students shall respect and maintain the campus as a drug-free, healthful, safe, and secure environment.
- The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of alcohol, narcotics, hallucinogens, depressants, stimulants, marijuana, and other controlled substances on College premises, at College activities, or while representing the College off college premises is absolutely prohibited. Violations of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination, and/or satisfactory participation in a counseling program, and may result in referral for legal prosecution. College disciplinary proceedings for violations shall fall within the provisions of Article VII of the Constitution of the Student Government Association. The conduct prohibited by this policy also is prohibited by federal, state, and local laws. Criminal and/or administrative penalties include suspension or loss of driver’s license, monetary fines and/or imprisonment. Particulars of these various laws are available from a local U.S. Attorney’s office, Commonwealth Attorney’s office, or law enforcement officials.
- The College recognizes drug or alcohol dependency as an illness and a major health problem. The use of illicit drugs or abuse of alcohol poses physical, mental, and emotional health risks, such as increased risk of cardiac, renal, and liver dysfunction; pre, peri, and postnatal complications, depression, and suicide. The College also recognizes drug or alcohol abuse as a potential threat to the health, safety and security of other persons or property. The College will make the following drug and alcohol services available to students who wish or need help. These services may be obtained on a voluntary basis or through referral when performance or behavior suggests a problem.
 - Immediate health care can be offered through the College Health Center (381-6140). If the situation warrants, a referral can be made for long-term care at an in or out-patient facility.
 - The Counseling Center offers free and confidential counseling and referrals for students in dealing with substance abuse problems.
- Students convicted of any criminal or administrative drug or alcohol offense shall report same to the Director of Residence Life & Housing within five (5) days after conviction. The College will not disclose any such report of conviction except as provided by law and this policy.
- Students must abide by the terms of the above policy, as a standard for participation and completion of a program of study at Sweet Briar College.

- The College will conduct a biennial review of its program to determine its effectiveness, make changes where necessary, and ensure that sanctions are consistently enforced.
- Federal, state and local law enforcement officials, including campus police, will be allowed to investigate and to conduct searches and seizures to the extent permitted by law.
- Due to the seriousness of the issue, this Policy is subject to change at any time, as the Administration may deem necessary for the protection of person or property.

QUIET HOURS/ COURTESY HOURS

At all times courtesy hours are in effect and any time students are in a residence area they must respect the rights and privacy of other students. Quiet hours are times when students are expected to keep sound and activity within the confines of their rooms.

Volume control on items such as radios, stereos, TV's must be kept at a reasonable level. Excessive noise cannot be permitted. Common courtesy and reasonable discretion are required. During Final Exams, quiet hours are in effect 24 hours per day in all Residence Areas. Quiet hours/courtesy hours are established in order to provide students with the opportunity for uninterrupted sleep and study. Residents in each residence hall will be given the opportunity to vote to establish quiet hours in their residence area. Residents may revoke at any time thereafter should the hours need to be altered. All residents of a particular unit will be expected to uphold and enforce any majority-voted quiet hours.

Failure to follow these guidelines will result in referral to the Social Violations Hearing Board. Violation of Quiet Hours may be considered a community disturbance. Students involved in community disturbances may have their residency revoked or reassigned.

SMOKING POLICY

Smoking is not permitted in any College residence facility other than in a student's own room when the door is closed. Smoking is prohibited in any public area in the Residence Areas including elevators, bathrooms, lobby, hallways, etc. Residents in a particular hall may vote (by simple majority) for a certain area in their residence hall to be designated a smoking area. Residents are expected to post informational signs indicating whether a lounge space is designated for smoking or non smoking.

Residents are expected to use caution when lighting, smoking and extinguishing cigarettes or other smoking materials. Students are liable for any injury to others and/or damage to property resulting from negligence.

Secondary smoke has been determined harmful to health, therefore smoking is prohibited in public areas of all academic and administrative buildings, including laboratories, classrooms, seminar rooms, lounges and adjacent hallways and stairwells. Smoking is also prohibited in the gymnasium, Pannell Center, library and the Babcock Fine Arts Center. Smoking is permitted in the offices of members of the faculty and staff while such members are present.

SOLICITATION

To protect the privacy of residents, solicitation, fundraising, sales, business enterprising, etc. is prohibited without prior authorization of the Office of Residence Life & Housing.

TRASH POLICY

Residents must clean their rooms regularly, remove waste material, and maintain reasonable sanitation and safety standards. Students may not place personal trash in lounges, hallways, stairwells, closets, bathrooms or kitchens; residents must dispose of personal trash in the proper receptacles. Nothing may be thrown from windows. Any trash belonging to a resident that is not disposed of in the correct receptacles, will be in violation of the policy. If the responsible individual(s) is not identified, cleaning fees will be prorated to the community.

VISITATION/GUEST POLICY

While visitation within the residence areas is a privilege and is encouraged, reasonable discretion and good judgment must be used. Care needs to be taken so as not to conflict with the rights and privacy of other students who are entitled to the use of the residence area facilities in a manner consistent with the design of the facility. Each resident is allowed a maximum of two non-student guests per resident present in the room.

Female visitors may be a guest in the residence areas at any time with the agreement of roommates. For visits in excess of three consecutive nights approval must be obtained from the Office of Residence Life & Housing. Male visitors may be the guest of a Sweet briar student in her residence hall room with the agreement of roommates and in accordance with the following regulations:

For Upperclasswomen

Option A: no male visitation Monday-Thursday; visitation Friday and Saturday, noon-1 am; Sunday noon-midnight.

Option B: male visitation Monday-Thursday, noon-1 am; Friday noon-Monday 1 am.

Option C: male visitation permitted at any time with the agreement of the roommate(s). For visits in excess of three consecutive nights approval must be obtained from the Office of Residence Life & Housing.

For first-year students

Option 1: no male visitation Monday-Thursday; visitation Friday and Saturday, noon-1 am; Sunday noon-midnight.

Option 2: male visitation Monday-Thursday, noon-midnight; Friday, noon-3 am; Saturday, 10 am-3 am; Sunday, 10 am-midnight.

Option 3: male visitation Monday-Thursday, noon-1 am; Friday noon-Monday 1 am.

During its hours of operation, check-point will require all visitors to record their name and car upon entrance to the campus.

It is the responsibility of each student to abide by, know and support these hours. It is a student's responsibility to accompany her male guest at all times when he is in the residence hall or entering/leaving the hall. Students must provide their roommate(s) with 24 hour advance notice when having/expecting an overnight guest, and receive the roommate(s) full consent. Should this consent not be available, the student should utilize other alternatives, i.e. the Guest House. Male guests are required to remain in the room of their host from 3:00 am-9:00 am when staying overnight unless in case of an emergency and only then when escorted by their host. Male guests must comply with the policies established by community agreement for the use of residence hall showers and other facilities. Once defined these policies must be posted. Failure to cooperate with the policy in any manner may result in restriction of visitation privileges and/or further disciplinary action.

The host resident is responsible for her guests' conduct at all times. All guests are expected to abide by all College policies and guidelines, as well as state, local and federal laws. The host resident can be held responsible for any violation committed by her guest as if the student committed the violation personally. The host resident will be held responsible for damage to College facilities/property due to damage committed by herself and/or her guest. Any guest's failure to assume responsibility for his actions may be subject to administrative consequences by the College and/or prosecution in a court of law. Inappropriate actions on the part of a guest and/or failure to comply with this policy will result in the guest being asked to leave the campus.

Male Family Visitor: A student may take a male relative to her room any day from 6:00 am to closing, but she is expected to prepare other residents on the hall, and she must accompany her guest while he is in the residence hall.

Restricting Visitation: Every residence hall has the right to close the hall to males on any particular night. A one-third vote during exams and a one-half vote at other times, taken by secret ballot, of those present and voting at a hall meeting at which there is a quorum of two-thirds, is required to close the residence hall for one night or succession of nights.

Overnight away from room: In a close-knit community, such as Sweet Briar, community members grow to know and care for one another. It is easy to become concerned when a community member is unable to be located. For this reason if a resident is staying overnight in any place other than her own room, she is encouraged to leave information, with a friend, roommate or RA, concerning her whereabouts or the name of a contact person who would know her location.

Review of Policy: The provisions stated above are subject to a mandatory review annually by College Council (or similar community forum) no later than its April meeting.

INTERIM SANCTIONS

In certain circumstances, the Dean of Academic Advising and Co-Curricular Life (or his/her designee) may impose a residence area suspension pending an assessment and/or a hearing before a committee, board, or deciding body. Interim suspension may be imposed only:

- a) to ensure the safety and well-being of members of the College community or preservation of College property;
- b) to ensure the student's own physical or emotional safety and well-being;
- c) if the student poses a definite threat of disruption or interference with the normal operations of the College.

During interim suspension, students shall be denied access to the residence area and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other College activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible, as the Dean of Academic Advising and Co-Curricular Life (or his/her designee) may determine to be appropriate.

In certain circumstances, the Director of Residence Life & Housing (or his/her designee) may impose a mandated room reassignment or other restrictions prior to a hearing before a judicial body.

Whenever interim sanctions are imposed, a hearing shall be convened at the earliest possible time. The interim sanction(s) may remain in effect until a final decision has been reached, including any appropriate appeals process.

Section 3 College Services

SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE HEALTH AND COUNSELING SERVICES

The Harley Student Health Center is dedicated to assisting each student in assuming responsibility for her own health and well-being.

The professional staff includes a full time Director-OB/GYN Nurse Practitioner, a full time R.N., two part time physician and a full time medical secretary. A professional staff member is always available during normal working hours. Medical emergencies occurring outside normal hours are handled by the Residence Life Staff and Campus Police. The Amherst County Rescue Squad may be called in emergencies, and provides immediate transportation to the Emergency Room of Lynchburg General Hospital. Consultants in all medical specialties are available in Lynchburg, 14 miles from the College.

Medical Services are provided by the professional staff during normal working hours. Physician's hours are posted.

Full gynecologic services are available by appointment.

Laboratory studies and medications are charged to the student.

The physician or nurse practitioner will prescribe medications needed by a student. The prescriptions will be delivered daily at a specified time to the Information Center by a local pharmacy and charges will be made by the pharmacy. Only the person for whom the drug is prescribed will be permitted to pick up the medicine. Written prescriptions are also available.

The nurse practitioner shares with the department of Physical Education responsibility for the College's program of health education. There is an accredited course in health education open to all four classes under the department of Physical Education. In addition, the Health Center, Department of Physical Education and Office of Co-Curricular Life jointly undertake to provide information on the problems affecting the physical and mental health of the community. Informational materials in the form of books and pamphlets on sex, drugs, and other matters of health are available in the Health Center, the Library and the Office of Co-Curricular Life.

Since the Health Service has the responsibility for the medical care of the students, it is urged that all referrals to consulting specialists be arranged through the Health Center. The Health Service assumes no responsibility when students choose to consult outside physicians independently of the Health Center.

In cases of extreme emergencies, the nurse on duty may leave the Health Center and go to the site of the emergency on campus to administer first aid and make an evaluation. A member of the college staff will cover the Health Center during that time.

All interactions between the Health Service and Counseling Service personnel and students are STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with medical ethics and Virginia law. The only exceptions would be if the student gives her WRITTEN CONSENT for release of medical records, or in a life-threatening emergency situation.

The Counseling Center, located on the 3rd floor of the Harley Student Health Center, offers assistance to students with personal, family, social, and educational concerns. This assistance is available to all Sweet Briar College students free of charge. Appointments are made by calling the Health Center. A separate waiting room is provided for privacy. All appointments are strictly confidential.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SERVICES

Sweet Briar is an independent college without denominational affiliation. Nevertheless, it has always stressed the cultivation of spiritual values as essential to education.

From its beginning Sweet Briar College has emphasized cooperation among people of faith. The varied religious backgrounds of both faculty members and students enrich the whole life of the campus community. However, the individual's participation in either the academic study of religion or the College worship services is entirely voluntary.

The Sweet Briar Memorial Chapel provides an invitation to worship to all who enter. Completed in 1966, the Chapel was dedicated on April 23, 1967. Its copper-roofed spire rises 125 feet above the surrounding landscape and stands as a focal point of the residential quadrangle at the east end of the campus.

Among the opportunities for public worship in the Chapel are:

Morning Prayer—Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday

Holy Communion—Wednesday

Roman Catholic Mass—Monday evening

College Vespers—Sunday evening

The Chaplain presides at the Vesper Service and during the year members of the community are invited to participate. A representative group of students, faculty, and staff work with the Chaplain to support religious life on the campus and to plan service projects and programs that encourage religious and moral reflection. The College Chaplain is available for pastoral work with individuals and groups.

The College Chaplain's office is located on the lower level of the Chapel.

CAMPUS POLICE

FOOD SERVICES

The Staff of the Food Service Department has served the College for many years and takes pride and pleasure in its contribution to the quality of campus life. Our statement of purpose is: ... to consistently provide exceptional quality and wholesome food and beverages to students and their guests, in facilities that meet the highest standards of sanitation, served by a staff that is pleasant and cooperative, and to operate within the financial limits established by the College.

A. Prothro Commons

This is the campus dining facility, one of the loveliest dining rooms on any college campus. Students, faculty, staff and guests gather daily in this congenial atmosphere. To assist us in maintaining a consistent and quality food service program, we ask for the cooperation and support of all students in abiding by the following policies:

1. Use of Dining Hall

The Dining Hall is open for meals during listed hours, and is not available between meals, or after hours when the college is closed, unless a request for a special event has been approved through the Director's office.

2. Programs

In an effort to keep the atmosphere during meals congenial and compatible with pleasant dining, we restrict activities during meals to general announcements and student sponsored events that have been approved by the Director.

3. Visitors

Students are encouraged to bring their guests to meals and they are expected to ensure that guests' meals are paid for before entering the service area. Payment can be made at the hostess desk in the lobby.

4. Alcoholic Beverages

In compliance with Virginia A.B.C. Regulations, no alcoholic beverages are permitted in the dining hall.

5. Attire

Students are expected to dress appropriately for meals, in consideration of other students and guests. Shoes must be worn. Sleepwear and bathing attire are not acceptable.

6. Off-Premises Meals

Food Service does not provide student meals, groceries or uncooked food for off-premise consumption. The only exceptions are bag lunches for very special occasions, and Health Center meals.

7. Bag Lunches

Bag lunches are provided for field trips, student teaching and athletic activities off campus. They must be requested by the faculty or staff member in charge, at least 48 hours prior to the event. Arrangements can be made with the Dining Hall Manager.

8. Health Center Meals

The dining hall sends meals to the Health Center only at their request. Meals are sent only for the attending Health Service Nurse and for students who are residing in the Health Center.

9. Take-out Food & Snacks

The Food Service program is designed only for meals consumed in the dining hall. We expect students to miss some meals and budget accordingly and therefore cannot allow food and beverages to be taken out for "snacks".

10. Removal of Equipment & Supplies

The china, glassware, silver and table appointments are purchased for use in the dining hall only. Replacement of these items is costly and is an inconvenience to other students when the supplies run out. Removing these items can be considered stealing and therefore is considered an honor offense.

B. The Bistro

Located on the ground floor of the Wailes Student Center, the Bistro offers a relaxing atmosphere for the Sweet Briar Community. The Bistro is a student restaurant offering light fare, beverages, groceries, and entertainment.

C. College Catering Services

The Food Service Department offers a catering service to all students, faculty and staff. Catering provides service, food and beverages for many college events that take place in nonfood service facilities. The Catering Manager can assist in the planning, cost estimates and coordination of services. The College does not allow "off-campus" food companies or caterers to provide service on campus.

D. Employment

The Catering Department employs many Sweet Briar students in its service. Students interested in this on-campus employment opportunity may contact the Catering Manager.

CAMPUS SERVICES

A. Book Shop

The Book Shop is located on campus (see map) and provides a readily accessible source for gifts, clothes, Sweet Briar insignia merchandise, Apple Macintosh computers, trade books, supplies and textbooks. Visit the Boxwood Café, which serves coffee, espresso, cappuccino—come for coffee, stay for conversation! All purchases, including textbooks, school and art supplies, may be charged to your SBC account. Statements will be rendered monthly, and are due within 30 days.

The U.S. Post Office is located on the ground floor of the Wailes Student Center. The purchase of stamps and all other postal services are available here; two forms of I.D. are required for purchases paid by check. A complete mail schedule is posted in the post office lobby at all times. Each student is assigned a post office box for rent which is payable at the beginning of the college term or may be paid in advance. In addressing students' mail to Sweet Briar, Virginia 24595, parents and friends are asked to please use the students' box number to expedite the delivery of the mail. It is not necessary to show Sweet Briar College or the name of the residence hall in the students' addresses.

C. Laundry & Dry Cleaning

A modern coin-operated laundry facility is available on campus for student use. Those students who desire a weekly linen service consisting of 2 sheets, 1 pillowcase, 3 bath towels, 2 hand towels, and 2 wash clothes or dry cleaning may obtain this service from a college approved contractor.

D. Information Center

The Information Center, located in the Wailes Student Center, has an Operator on duty 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to provide emergency assistance and routine information to students, staff and visitors as needed. The Information Center maintains a continuous radio link with the Campus

Police Officers on duty, in addition to monitoring all alarms and processing incoming and outgoing telephone calls. For more information, see under "Campus Police."

E. Intra-Campus Mail System

Located in the Information Center, the mailing system is for the use of all members of the Sweet Briar community (student, faculty, administration) and offers an alternative to the U.S. Post Office. Each student is assigned an open box at the beginning of the academic year. The faculty and administration are provided with a large, locked collection box adjacent to the student boxes, where students may leave mail to be delivered to faculty and staff by the campus mail delivery employees. It is the responsibility of the originator of a particular piece of mail to see that it is delivered to the appropriate box(es). All intra-campus mailing procedures come under the jurisdiction of the Office of Co-Curricular Life.

RECREATIONAL AND CAMPUS FACILITIES

Two facilities on campus available for student use during the academic year include the Boathouse and the Wailes Student Center. In general, a student wishing to reserve one of these facilities for a private party or event must have proper approval from the Director of College Events. The College limits the number of weeknight parties involving non-Sweet Briar students to four on two designated nights (Sunday through Thursday), to be held at the Wailes Student Center and the Boathouse. A. Library Collections and Services

The Sweet Briar College Library has one of the finest collections in Virginia. It includes over 210,000 volumes and more than 1000 journal and newspaper subscriptions. Most of these materials are housed in the Mary Helen Cochran Library which consists of five floors of bookstacks, and reading or study areas. Music materials are located in the Junius P. Fishburn Library in the Babcock Fine Arts Center; the mathematics and science materials are in the Fanny B. Fletcher Library in the Guion Science Center; and the art history and studio art materials are located in the Martin C. Shallenberger Library in the Anne Gary Pannell Center.

In addition, Sweet Briar has access to other library resources locally and throughout the country. Lynchburg Information Online Network (LION) provides access to over 500,000 items held by Sweet Briar, Randolph-Macon Woman's College and the Lynchburg College libraries. Additional databases available through LION and the Internet. These provide access to over 200 million more items.

The Library faculty offer courses and workshops each year on library use and research skills. Library Orientation and demonstrated proficiency in Basic Library Skills are required of all entering students. Other classes focus on advanced research techniques in various disciplines and on computer database researching. The latter are especially helpful for students working on major research projects. Studies have shown that superior library skills enables students to perform better academically.

Some of the special facilities and collections worth noting are:

1. Reference Room

Here you will find the LION catalog terminals, several CD-ROM reference databases and over 2,000 reference books as well as computers for connecting to the Internet. Reference books are intended for looking up quick facts or for locating sources of information, so they must remain in this room for others to use. You can ask any librarian for assistance with reference materials or the catalogue.

2. Circulation Desk

This is where you check out and return library materials. Items "on Reserve" for courses and videos are shelved here and should be requested from the staff member on duty. Interlibrary loan materials and items "faxed" to you may be picked up at the Circulation Desk in the Cochran Library.

3. Book Stacks

Most of the library collection is shelved in the three lower levels of the Cochran Library. Books in "the stacks" are arranged by Library of Congress call numbers. ("Call numbers" are the letters and numbers printed on a label on the spine of the book.)

4. Journals and Newspapers

All current journals and newspapers in the Cochran Library are on the Main Level. Recent issues are on display shelves and are arranged alphabetically by title. Earlier issues of many journals and newspapers are kept in microform on the Main Level. Older volumes of a few journals are shelved on Lower Level 1. The library staff will be happy to assist you in finding journal articles and in using the microforms equipment. Journals and newspapers may not be checked out and should be used only in the library. Journals and microform in the subject areas of art, music, mathematics and the sciences are kept in the appropriate branch libraries.

5. Photocopying

Photocopy machines are located adjacent to the Circulation Desk in each library facility. Desk attendants will provide assistance and collect payment. Copies are ten cents per page. The copyright law (PL 94-553) governs the making of photocopies. Under certain conditions specified in the law, a copy may be made for "private study, scholarship or research," but for no other purpose. Students may not charge the cost of photocopies.

B. Library Policies

1. The borrower is responsible for the prompt and safe return of all library materials checked out in her name. Any student who does not properly check out a book or return it promptly is in violation of the Honor Code.
2. The loan period for books is four weeks. To check out books, a student must present her college I.D. card. Journals, newspapers, reference books, and books from Special Collections do not circulate. Reserve books may circulate for three hours; many may be checked out overnight. Videotapes, videodiscs, audiocassettes, records and compact discs circulate for 3-day periods. All library materials must be returned to the Library by the last day of exams in the Spring term.

3. Overdue fines accumulate at the rate of ten cents a day per book up to the replacement cost of the book. The fines begin to accumulate from the first day that the book is overdue. The first overdue notice is sent approximately one week after the book was due. Students have a ten-day "grace period" during which fines will not be collected. All accumulated fines will be collected after the ten-day grace period has expired, if the item has not been returned. A second notice is sent two weeks after the first notice. When an item is five weeks overdue, it is presumed lost, and the student's name and the replacement cost of the item will be sent to the Business Office. Students can then expect to receive a bill (on the "Bistro bill") for the replacement cost of the item, plus a twenty-five dollar processing fee for each library item lost. Fines are not charged over vacations or during January Term.

Fines for overdue Reserves are twenty-five cents per hour. Overnight reserves are due by 10 a.m. the following morning. Overdue fines on videos, audiocassettes and compact discs are $1.00 per day.

All library materials should be considered college property intended for general, not private, use. Many older books are now irreplaceable and need to be handled with care. Please report any damage to library materials at the Circulation Desk.

5. Smoking is prohibited in all College Libraries.

Campus Employment

Application for jobs must be made to, and cleared through, the Director of Financial Aid. Since all recipients of financial aid are normally expected to hold self-help jobs, they will be given preference in job placement.

Delinquent Accounts and Bad Checks

No student who is in arrears to any department or enterprise of the College will be permitted to receive a grade report, transcript or diploma. A fine of $20 will be charged for any check returned for any reason. If more than one check is returned, the student will lose check cashing privileges for the remainder of the academic year.

Identification Cards

An ID card is issued to each student at the Campus Police Office. The ID is issued at the beginning of the College year. The student is on her honor not to tamper with, borrow, or lend her ID card. The ID card is required by the College for cashing of checks at the Business Office; for checking out books from the library; for charging items at the Book Shop; and may be requested by any Department of the College at any time. The issue of the original ID card each school year is covered by the check-in fee. Lost, stolen or mutilated ID cards may be replaced for a $3 fee at the Campus Police Office which is open from 7 am to 3:30 pm each Monday through Friday.

Responsibility for Property

Although the College strives to protect the property of its students in the same manner as its own, it will not be responsible for the loss of any personal property of any student. Students are responsible for loss to College property not incurred during normal usage. There is no painting of any College property, except the freshwomen hitching post and the sophomore rock. There is no painting of individual or stage property in any area of the residence halls. Any violation of this policy will result in individuals or clubs responsible for the damage being assessed for paint removal or for redecoration of the area in question.

Public Conduct

Each student is reminded that, in her conduct off campus as well as on, she is a representative of the Sweet Briar community. She is charged with the responsibility to insure that at all times her conduct reflects creditably upon the good names and ideals of the College.

Married Students

If a student enrolled in Sweet Briar College plans to marry before graduation, she is requested to notify the Dean of Academic Advising and Co-Curricular Life of her marriage plans at least one month in advance of the marriage. Since student housing is not available for married couples on campus, the student and her partner are responsible for making off-campus housing arrangement.

Fundraising

Any fundraising projects, either on or off campus, should be cleared in advance with the Vice President of Development. The stipulations regarding publicity and fundraising are made to prevent conflicts with College-wide fundraising programs and to promote the best interests of the College community in this area.

Food, Merchandise, and Service Sales

Any group of students, organization, or individual from on or off campus wishing to sell food, refreshments, merchandise, or services on the campus must secure permission in advance from the Dean of Academic Advising and Co-Curricular Life and the Vice President for Business Affairs. Off campus stores, organizations, or individuals must confine their activities to the Wailes Student Center. There is a fee for the use of a room in this facility.

Scheduling Events/College Calendar

The College calendar is maintained in the Office of Public Relations and is under the supervision of the Director of College Events. Approval for all events, whether they are to be listed on the weekly calendar, is required, and approval must be given at least 24 hours in advance of the event. Appropriate reservation forms ("green sheet") must be completed through the Office of Public Relations. Requests for set up should be made to the Director of College Events. Requests for catering can be made after completion of the green sheet form and should be made at least two weeks in advance with the catering manager. Tentative reservations for a particular date, time and place of the event will be held by the Director of College Events for only 48 hours. All student sponsored events require the signature of the Coordinator of Co-Curricular Programs. The weekly College calendar is compiled and published each Thursday by the Office of Public Relations. All events listed on the calendar ("Week's View") must be approved by noon of the day before (Wednesday). Any unavoidable time changes or cancellations should be relayed to the Director of College Events immediately and, if possible, be made prior to the calendar deadline preceding the event.

Regulations Concerning the Use of College Property and Facilities

- Written permission for the use of College property, including rooms, equipment and campus areas, for other than its usual function, must be obtained in advance from the appropriate member(s) of the College administration.
- Requests from groups or individual(s) not normally authorized to use the College's mailing facilities must be addressed, in writing, to the appropriate office at least three weeks in advance of the planned mailing date. Such requests must be accompanied by copies of all materials to be included in the mailing.
- Written approval of the contents must be obtained from appropriate members of the Administration and the Director of Public Relations before the mailing can be processed. If permission is granted to use the College's mailing facilities, the individual(s) or group concerned will pay in full for all services rendered and materials used. Letters or statements must be signed and envelopes must carry the name of an individual to whom a reply may be directed. College stationery and envelopes are not to be used.

Publicity Guidelines

On campus: Any reporter, photographer, filmmaker, videotaper, or distributor of questionnaires who is not a member of the Sweet Briar community must have the permission of the Office of Public Relations to work on campus.

The Office of Public Relations must be notified in advance if someone will be working on campus so that preparations can be made and approved to insure cooperation from the members of the community and to protect the College, students and others from unwanted publicity. Students are requested to notify the Director of Public Relations if they meet any unauthorized reporters or photographers on the campus.

Off Campus: Media relations and off campus publicity relating to Sweet Briar College, its students, faculty and programs are handled through the Office of Public Relations. This office issues news releases and hometown stories about students and is interested in learning about student activities and accomplishments. Every Sweet Briar student represents the College to the outside world, and what she says to reporters, editors or College guides, and others contributes to the image of Sweet Briar College. Therefore, with the exception of engagement and wedding announcements, any material a student wishes to submit to any of the media should be cleared with the Director of Public Relations. If a student is unexpectedly questioned off campus by a reporter, she may, if she wishes, identify herself as a Sweet Briar student but should make clear that she is speaking only for herself as an individual.

- The Office of Public Relations also is responsible for most College publications. Students, with their consent, are often interviewed and/or photographed and quoted in such publications.
- In case of an automobile accident, a student is advised not to give any information to any reporter or photographer. In the interest of the owner of the car and her/his insurance coverage, it is important that information be given only to police authorities, and that it should be factual. Students are advised not to sign any report of the accident or to assume liability, except at the directive of the police.
